YOUR STYLE

Look Two

The second look of this series is taken from the winter menswear collection of Gordon's House of Six.

This look depicts the versatility of the the brand's aesthetic and how it can be flexible enough to be worn by both genders.

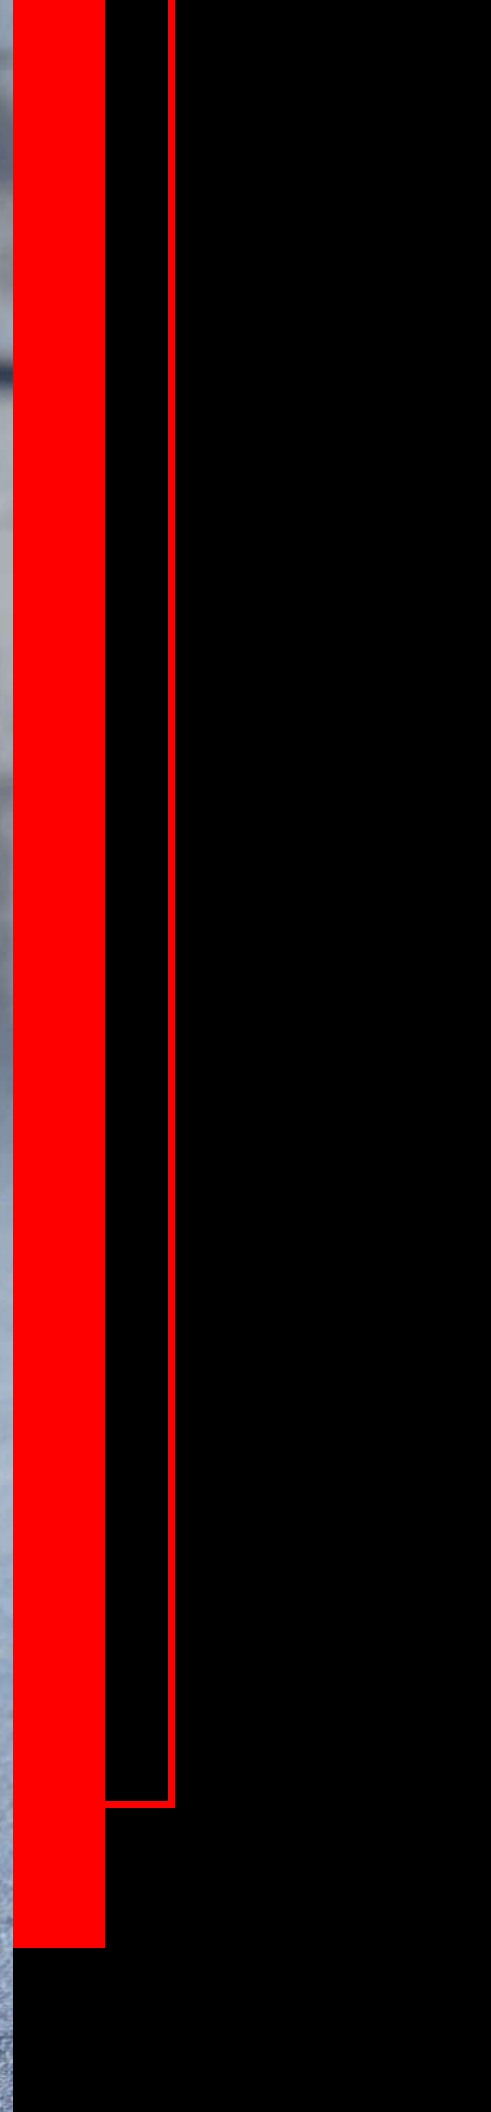

Please do enjoy this second instalment of issue one and have a look at the first Look Book that come out yesterday. Also keep a look out for the third book and make sure to subscribe!

FEATURES

The Designer

Gordon's House of Six is a Cape Town-based fashion design brand created by siblings Isaac Gordon and Sammy-joe Gordon. They specialise in urban street wear for both male and female, and sometimes do kiddies wear.

The look featured in this book is part of their winter wear and athleisure inspired collection.

For more information, please check them out on Instagram: @gordonshouseofsix.

The Photographer

Luvuyo Wogqoyi is a young and talented photographer from Nyanga. He is also part of a group of photographers who call themselves iSkeem Semicimbi. Luvuyo is one of those people whose work does the talking for itself. He does everything from street photography to editorials. You can check his work out on Instagram: @lwogqoyi.

The Blogger

Needs no introduction. Your's truly, Yolanda Soginga, is the mastermind behind TAP Into Your Style, and basically everything else you see on www.thatsmycrown.com
